Dear Ms. Gillis:

British Columbia Hydro and Power Authority (BC Hydro)
Project No. 3698640/Order G-132-11
Certificate of Public Convenience and Necessity Application for the Dawson Creek/Chetwynd Area Transmission Project (DCAT Project)

In response to the Commission's letter dated March 27, 2012 [Exhibit A-25], we are providing the comments of ARC Resources Ltd. (ARC), Encana Corporation (Encana) and Murphy Oil Company Limited (Murphy), with regard to the request by BC Hydro to reactivate the hearing of this application.

ARC, Encana and Murphy support the positions of BC Hydro as set out in its March 23, 2012 letter [Exhibit B-22]. They in particular agree that the DCAT Project should be examined on the basis of the existing tariff provisions, and that broad tariff changes ought not be considered in the context of this specific facility application.

BC Hydro has included in its filing General Customer Evidence that discusses the electricity needs of ARC, Encana and Murphy. As this evidence demonstrates, these companies are proceeding with their gas development plans in northeast British Columbia in reliance on
