IN THE MATTER OF the Utilities Commission Act, R.S.B.C. 1996, Chapter 473

and

An Application by British Columbia Transmission Corporation for a Certificate of Public Convenience and Necessity for Vancouver Island Transmission Reinforcement Project

BEFORE: R.H. Hobbs, Chair
N.F. Nicholls, Commissioner July 12, 2005

O R D E R

WHEREAS:

- A. By application dated July 7, 2005, the British Columbia Transmission Corporation (“BCTC”) requested that the British Columbia Utilities Commission (the “Commission”) grant a Certificate of Public Convenience and Necessity (“CPCN”) for the Vancouver Island Transmission Reinforcement Project (“VITR”) to reinforce the electric transmission system serving Vancouver Island and the Southern Gulf Islands (the “Application”); and
- B. The VITR consists of a new 67 kilometer 230 kilovolt (“kV”) transmission line between South Delta and North Cowichan that will replace an existing 138 kV line, plus certain upgrading of the second existing 138 kV line; and
- C. BCTC proposes to construct the new 230 kV line entirely within the existing 138 kV right-of-way, and to place underground 3.7 km of the new 230 kV line in the community of Tsawwassen ; and
- D. The VITR is estimated to cost $245 million, and is scheduled to be in service by October 2008; and
- E. In the Application, BCTC also requests approval, contingent upon confirmation of external funding, to underground the VITR in public streets and/or to advance the underground replacement of the second 138 kV line in the Tsawwassen area; and
- F. The Commission considers that a Procedural Conference is required to hear submissions on the regulatory process for the review of the Application.

NOW THEREFORE the Commission orders as follows:

1. A Procedural Conference regarding the regulatory process for the review of the BCTC Application for a CPCN for the VITR will be held on Thursday, August 4, 2005 commencing at 9:00 a.m. in the Commission Hearing Room on the Sixth Floor, 900 Howe Street, Vancouver, B.C., to address procedural matters which will include, but may not be limited to, the following:

BRITISH COLUMBIA
UTILITIES COMMISSION

ORDER
NUMBER G-70-05

2

- identification of the principal issues arising from or related to the Application;
 - scope of the Commission's review of the Application;
 - whether Intervenors intend to file evidence;
 - whether the review should proceed by an oral or written public hearing, or some other process;
 - if there is an oral hearing, the location(s) for the hearing;
 - steps and timetable associated with the regulatory review process; and
 - other matters that will assist the Commission to efficiently review the Application.
2. After the Procedural Conference, the Commission will issue a further procedural Order and Regulatory Agenda for the review of the Application.
 3. BCTC will publish, as soon as possible, in display-ad format, the Notice of Procedural Conference attached as Appendix A to this Order, in the Vancouver Sun and Province, the Victoria Times Colonist, and such other appropriate local news publications as may properly provide adequate notice to the public in the affected service area.
 4. The Application, together with any supporting materials, will be made available for inspection at the BCTC Vancouver Head Office, and at the Commission's office.
 5. Intervenors and Interested Parties should register with the Commission, in writing, by Friday, July 29, 2005 and advise whether they will attend the Procedural Conference. Intervenors should specifically state the nature of their interest in the Application and identify generally the nature of the issues that they intend to pursue during the proceeding and the nature and extent of their anticipated involvement in the review process.
 6. Commission Information Request No. 1 to BCTC will be issued on Friday, August 5, 2005 and BCTC will respond to Commission Information Request No. 1 on Friday, August 26, 2005.

DATED at the City of Vancouver, in the Province of British Columbia, this 12th day of July 2005.

BY ORDER

| Date: | Thursday, August 4, 2005 |
| Time: | 9:00 a.m. |
| Location: | Commission Hearing Room Sixth Floor 900 Howe Street Vancouver, B.C. |

THE APPLICATION

By Application dated July 7, 2005, BCTC requests a CPCN to construct and operate the VITR to reinforce the electric transmission system serving Vancouver Island and the Southern Gulf Islands. BCTC proposes to replace an existing 138 kilovolt (“kV”) transmission line between South Delta and North Cowichan with a new 230 kV line that will be entirely within the existing 138 kV right-of-way. The VITR is estimated to cost $245 million and is scheduled to be in service by October 2008.

THE REGULATORY PROCESS

The Commission will hold a Procedural Conference regarding the regulatory process for the review of the Application commencing at 9:00 a.m., on Thursday, August 4, 2005 in the Commission Hearing Room on the Sixth Floor of 900 Howe Street in Vancouver.

Following the Procedural Conference, the Commission will issue a further procedural Order and Regulatory Agenda to registered parties.

PUBLIC INSPECTION OF THE DOCUMENTS

The Application and supporting material will be made available for inspection at the BCTC Head Office at Suite 1100 Four Bentall Centre, 1055 Dunsmuir Street Vancouver, B.C., V7X 1V5, and the British Columbia Utilities Commission office: Sixth Floor, 900 Howe Street, Vancouver, B.C., V6Z 2N3.

The Application will be available for viewing on BCTC’s website at www.bctc.com.

INTERVENTIONS

Persons who expect to actively participate in the BCTC proceeding should register as Intervenors with the Commission, in writing, by Friday, July 29, 2005, identifying their interest in the Application and indicating whether they plan to attend the Procedural Conference. Intervenors should identify the issues that they intend to pursue and the nature and extent of their anticipated involvement in the review process. Intervenors will each receive a copy of the Application and all correspondence and filed documentation and should provide an e-mail address if available.

Persons not expecting to actively participate, but who have an interest in the proceeding should register as Interested Parties with the Commission, in writing, by Friday, July 29, 2005, identifying their interest in the Application and indicating whether they plan to attend the Procedural Conference. Interested Parties will receive a copy of the Executive Summary in the Application, and all Orders and Decisions issued.
