BC Hydro's and FortisBC's reports are biased and are an attempt to cover up the truth about the adverse impacts of the two-tier rates. Neither report directly answers the questions posed by the Minister. BC Hydro's conclusion that there is "no evidence" of cross-subsidization nor high bill impacts is unsupported by any analysis and, in fact, is directly contradicted by the many letters of comment that have been submitted to these proceedings. Both reports are unacceptable as a response to the Minister. Nick Marty is an outside expert on these matters and he has sent you a clear and concise report that honestly appraises the impacts of two-tier rates on customers like us. I strongly submit that Nick Marty's report should be the basis of your response to the Minister.

I can only repeat my previously expressed frustration with a failed policy that does not achieve the desired result and penalizes those rural BC residents who do not have a choice to use natural gas for residential home and hot water heating. We are paying a patently unfair premium to use clean hydro energy. We take every measure possible to reduce our consumption, and are still held hostage to the two tier rates when it is not possible to heat our home during the winter months and still stay below the tier two rate that is directionally 50% higher than the base rate.
