The cost of vehicle insurance in this province is already way more then it needs to be. If you look to other Crown Corporation Insurance companies such as SGI according to their online calculator I would be paying 130 monthly for better insurance on my vehicle. In BC I pay 233 for much worse coverage, which doesn't include such basics as uninsured protection. I do believe Crown Corps are to operate in the public interest and when the private industry can not provide the same or better level of service. ICBC meets neither of these requirements, and it should not be up to the premium payers to keep a disfunctional company afloat. I also NEED to drive for work as I work in a different community. Instead of assisting people in this situation ICBC charges us more. Let that sink in for a minute, I have to pay ICBC more so that I can get to work in order to pay the insane rates for insurance from ICBC that apparently needs to be even more expensive. The system is broken, this province is broken.
