Comment:

I am a safe driver using ICBC insurance for nearly 20 years. I have never had an accident and yet I am being punished with increased rates for driving insurance. If what ICBC says is true about consistent losses due to increased claims, then the province needs to allow private insurance companies to come to B.C. to offload the financial burden. No longer should ICBC be aloud to have a monopoly on driving insurance. Other provinces are very successful with private insurance companies. The people of B.C. need to be aloud to have a choice, not forced to buy from the only provider.
