Re: Confidential Response to the British Columbia Utilities Commission's Round No. 2 Information Request on ICBC's 2019 Revenue Requirements Application

Dear Mr. Wruck:

Further to the filing of its public responses to the Round No. 2 Information Requests on ICBC's 2019 Revenue Requirements Application, ICBC notes that the response to 2019.2 RR BCUC.101.1C contains confidential information.

The response relates to the confidential filing entitled BI Segmented Analysis as of August 2018, filed separately with the British Columbia Utilities Commission (BCUC) as Supplementary Information on January 24, 2019 (Exhibit B-1-3).¹ The information in this response, if disclosed, could influence ICBC's settlement negotiations with claimants to the detriment of ICBC and its Basic insurance policyholders. In addition, data is only available on a total basis, meaning that the data set includes information about both Basic and Optional insurance. Disclosure of this information could similarly harm ICBC's economic interests by impairing its ability to compete in the Optional insurance market.

ICBC respectfully requests that the above information be treated as confidential in a manner consistent with the BCUC guidelines.

ICBC has prepared a redacted version of the response and has filed it contemporaneously with the public responses for the Round No. 2 Information Requests on ICBC's 2019 Revenue Requirements Application, under a separate cover letter.

Please direct any further correspondence relating to this confidential filing under confidential cover to my attention.

Yours truly,

June Elder
Manager, Corporate Regulatory Affairs
