

From: Shaun ORoark
To: Commission Secretary BCUC:EX
Subject: Site C dam
Date: Thursday, August 31, 2017 4:40:04 PM

Dear BCUC:

What if climate change is real and there are extreme changes in regional weather as predicted by many scientists. What if this causes a drought in the area draining into Williston Lake and any other sources leading to the Peace River. Would the dam then be totally useless? Does anyone ever consider this? I know the level at Williston Lake has varied widely over the years. Could it get really low in the future?

Shaun O'Roark
[REDACTED]